

Sports for Every Fan

Professional Sports

- Reds, baseball's first professional team in 1869.
- Bengals of the National Football League.
- Cyclones of the International Hockey League.
- Mighty Ducks of the American Hockey League.
- Riverhawks outdoor soccer.
- Horse Racing: Thoroughbred racing at Turfway Park and River Downs, Keeneland and Churchill Downs are less than two hours away in Kentucky. Plus harness racing at Lebanon Raceway in Warren County.
- NASCAR racing.
- Other sports include the Senior Men's Golf Tour and the Tennis Masters Series, Cincinnati professional men's tennis tournament.

College and University Athletic Programs

- Nationally recognized competition in more than 20 sports.
- One of three U.S. Olympic rowing training centers is on Cincinnati's Riverfront.

Sports for Every Fan Links

Bengals Football:

<http://www.bengals.com/>

Churchill Downs:

<http://www.churchilldowns.com/>

Cincinnati Golf:

<http://www.cincinnati-golf.com/>

College of Mt. St. Joseph Athletics:

<http://www.msj.edu/athletics/index.html>

Cyclones Hockey :

<http://www.cycloneshockey.com/>

Keeneland:

<http://www.keeneland.com/>

Kentucky Speedway:

<http://www.kentuckyspeedway.com/>

Miami University Athletics:

<http://www.muredhawks.com/index1.html>

Northern Kentucky University Athletics:

<http://www.nku.edu/~athletics/>

Reds Baseball:

<http://www.cincinnati-reds.com/home.html>

River Downs:

<http://www.riverdowns.com/>

Riverhawks Soccer:

<http://www.riverhawks.com/>

Thomas More College Athletics:

<http://www.thomasmore.edu/athletics/index.html>

Turfway Park:

<http://www.turfway.com/>

University of Cincinnati Athletics:

<http://www.ucbearcats.com/>

Xavier University Athletics:

<http://athletics.xu.edu/>