

Jeannett Albers

513.612.1859

jeannett.albers@ey.com

Jeannett Albers manages Ernst & Young's Entrepreneur Of The Year regional program and local marketing activities. She received a B.S. from the University of Dayton and an MBA from the University of Cincinnati where she was a member of the first place team at the 2005 Fidelity Business Case Competition. A former McKesson marketing manager, she was awarded the coveted "Sales Impact Person of the Year" recognition in 2003. In addition to spending time with family, mostly located in her home city, Jeannett enjoys travel and playing volleyball.

Terrance Ashanta-Barker

513.357.9615

ashanta-barker@taftlaw.com

Terrance Ashanta-Barker is an attorney in the Business and Finance Department of Taft, Stettinius & Hollister LLP's Cincinnati office. Mr. Ashanta-Barker received his law degree from Florida State University and his Chemical Engineering degree from Tuskegee University. He is the former COO and general counsel to Small & Carter Investments Company. He is a graduate of the Grassroots Leadership Academy and the United States Presidential Classroom. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees/Directors of the Cincinnati Business Incubator, the Cincinnati Scholarship Foundation and Freedom YP. Mr. Ashanta-Barker also enjoys the arts, reading, horseback riding and sports.

Treva Brinkley

513.762.7195

treva.brinkley@uwgc.org

Treva N. Brinkley is a senior development associate at United Way of Greater Cincinnati where she has been employed since 1999. She is very active as a community volunteer and an active church member at Hyde Park Baptist Church where she serves as chairwoman of the board of trustees. In addition to spending time with her husband Robert and their family and friends, she enjoys church activities, travel, board games and reading.

Melanie Burden

513.482.7527

mburden@freestorefoodbank.org

Melanie Burden has been the Director of Human Resources for the FreeStore FoodBank for the past two years. She received her B.A. in Economics and M.A. in Labor and Employment Relations, both from the University of Cincinnati. Melanie has been in the field of Human Resources for over 12 years, working in not-for-profit, for-profit and manufacturing industries. Melanie has served as a SHRM Member since 1996 and as a member of NAAHR since 1998. In addition to enjoying family activities with her husband Maurice and their son, she enjoys rock climbing, travel, reading and literacy composition.

Jeff Button

513.562.6982

jeff.button@fds.com

Jeff Button, Director of Career Development for Federated Department Stores. He received his M.A. in Counseling Psychology from Denver Seminary and a B.A. in Philosophy and Psychology from the State University of New York – Oswego. A recent transplant to Cincinnati, Jeff served as a facilitator for the St. Louis Job Alliance, an inner-city job training program. Jeff resides in Anderson Township with his wife, Gail and daughters Claire and Audrey.

Andy Chirch

513.361.8232

Andrew.chirch@usbank.com

Andy Chirch is Director of Downtown Retail for U.S. Bank. He is a graduate of Xavier University and a decorated U.S. Army veteran. You can find Andy working, running or just hanging out downtown with his wife, Meredith Keith Chirch and their two (soon to be three) children. An avid runner, Andy has finished the 26.2-mile Flying Pig Marathon twice (so far). He is a 2005 recipient of U.S. Bank's prestigious Circle of Service Excellence award. His other roles include volunteer business counselor with SCORE, finance committee member at his church, actor in local theater, bass guitarist and vocalist.

Vashon Christian 513.241.3400
vchristian@comey.com

Vashon Christian, realtor with Comey & Shepherd Realtors City Office, is also the founder of the Cincinnati Renaissance, a not-for-profit organization. She received her B.S. in Computer Science from Wilberforce University where she became a member of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, Students in Free Enterprise, ROTC and the Argumentation and Debate Team. She is currently attending Northern Kentucky University to receive her M.S. in Technology with a concentration in Construction Management. Additionally, she is a partner in a fire restoration company as well as an event promotion company. She enjoys activities that involve culture and creativity, especially poetry, art, music and dance. But mostly, she enjoys her seven-year old son Zachary.

Laura Chrysler 513.579.3105
lchrysler@cincinnatiachamber.com

Laura Chrysler is the business-to-business sponsorship sales manager for the Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber. She received her B.A. in Speech Communications and a B.S. in Mass Communications from Miami University. Laura volunteers locally for the Fine Arts Fund, United Way, Leukemia and Lymphoma Society and the Women's Connection. She lives in Pleasant Ridge with her husband Rob, whom she met in Luxembourg at Miami University's John Dolibois campus. She enjoys traveling, tennis, snow skiing and theatre.

Eric Clark 513.352.6555
eric.clark@thomsonhine.com

Eric Clark is an attorney in Thompson Hine's Labor & Employment practice group. He received his J.D. from the University of Cincinnati College of Law and an undergraduate degree in Accounting from John Carroll University. Eric is a member of the Cincinnati and Ohio State Bar Associations, and was formerly on the Board of Directors for Visions Community Services in Cincinnati's West End. Eric's leisure time is spent with his wife Tiffany and his two sons, Kaden and Noah. The Clarks are members of the Museum Center, Zoo, Art Museum and Aquarium. In addition, Eric enjoys golf, reading and running.

Kyle Dant
513.7312100 x 4005
kdant@socius1.com

Kyle Dant, Senior Consultant at Socius LLC, received his B.S. in Management Information Systems and Marketing from Miami University. After spending seven years in Chicago as an HR/Benefits Project Manager, he moved back to Cincinnati to help start up Socius' Cincinnati office. Outside of work, Kyle and his wife Anna enjoy outdoor sports, charity work and time with family.

Brock Denton 513.579.6456
ddenton@kmklaw.com

D. Brock Denton, an attorney with the law firm of Keating, Muething & Klekamp, represents clients in corporate matters. He is also a member of the Hiring Committee and the Summer Associate Program Coordinator. Mr. Denton received his law degree from Salmon P. Chase College of Law where he was Symposium Editor of the Northern Kentucky Law Review. He also received a degree in Accounting from the University of Kentucky. He was named an Ohio Rising Star by Law and Politics in 2005 and 2006, and is a Board of Director of the Cincinnati Reds Community Fund. He resides in Mt Lookout with his wife Elizabeth.

Stephen Eadicicco 513.362.1725
stephen.eadicicco@protiviti.com

Stephen Eadicicco is a Senior Consultant with Protiviti Business Risk Consulting. While at Protiviti, Stephen has worked with many different clients to ensure process effectiveness while reducing risk. Stephen received his B.S. in Business with a specialization in Finance and International Business from Indiana University in 2002. Stephen was actively involved in community service throughout his tenure at IU and was recognized for his achievements. He has remained active in the community upon his return to Cincinnati by organizing philanthropic activities for Protiviti. Aside from work and community service, Stephen enjoys spending time with his family and friends and traveling, both internationally and domestically.

Jason Farler
513.661.3100
jfarler@johnsoninv.com

Jason M. Farler, CFA, is a Portfolio Manager with Johnson Investment Counsel, Inc. Jason earned his B.S. in Finance from Miami University, where he is a frequent speaker at the Richard T. Farmer School of Business. Jason is a CFA Charterholder and is a member of the CFA Society of Cincinnati. He serves on the Board of Advisors for the Cinergy Children's Museum at the Cincinnati Museum Center and the Board of Directors for the March of Dimes Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky Division. Jason, his wife Sarah and daughter Abigail are residents of Fairfield Township.

Meghan Fedders
513.534.4005
meghan.fedders@53.com

Meghan Fedders has been with Fifth Third Bank for five years and is currently Assistant Vice President in Sourcing. She received her MBA from the University of Cincinnati and her B.S. in Mathematical Sciences from the University of Kentucky. She has competed in and received multiple Top Ten awards at both the United States and Canadian Arabian Horse Nationals. She also enjoys snow skiing, water skiing, volleyball and photography. She volunteers for multiple organizations including Meals on Wheels, Fly Pig and Habitat for Humanity. Meghan and her husband, Albert, live in Park Hills, KY with their son, Lucas.

Amanda Fritsch
513.768.8066
fritsch@gmail.com

Amanda Fritsch has been with Cincinnati.Com for nearly two years, where she serves as Business Development Manager. Her primary project is maintaining and marketing CincinnatiUSA.com, the website representing Cincinnati to potential leisure travelers. Previous to Cincinnati.com, Amanda worked for America Online in Columbus, OH. Amanda received an undergraduate degree in Marketing from the Ohio State University in 2001, where she held leadership roles with the professional fraternity Delta Sigma Pi. She currently serves on the board of directors for Labrador Retriever Rescue of Cincinnati, and is Co-Director of Technology for the local free wireless initiative, LilyPad.

Michele Fronckiewicz

513.636.5883

michele.fronckiewicz@cchmc.org

Michele Fronckiewicz, Executive Director at the Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center. She is responsible for two subsidiaries that focus on the support and delivery of pediatric primary care. She earned a B.A. in Economics from Denison University and an M.B.A from Xavier University. She completed Board Certification from the American College of Medical Practice Executives in 2006. In recent years, she served as President for the Cincinnati Chamber of the Denison Alumni Association and as Secretary of the Mount Lookout Civic Club. Outside the office, she enjoys family adventures with her two young sons and her husband, Ron Hicks.

Meghan Galvin

513.381.6672

meghangalvin@fuse.net

Meghan Galvin is the Development Director at the Center for Chemical Addictions Treatment where she is responsible for fundraising, marketing and public relations. Previously, she planned special events for the Alzheimer's Association of Greater Cincinnati. She received Bachelor's degrees in Political Science and English: Journalism at Miami University, and is currently pursuing her M.B.A at Xavier University. She volunteers with the Ronald McDonald House, Smart Money Community Services, the United Way Young Leaders and the Germania Society. Meghan is a native Cincinnati and has a passion for traveling abroad, photography, playing the violin and watching football.

Kimberly Glenn

513.287.3125

kimberly.glenn@duke-energy.com

Kimberly L. Glenn, a mechanical engineering graduate of the University of Kentucky, is a Supervisor with Duke Energy. Over the years, she has been active in the community, including serving on the American Lung Association's Regional Advisory Board, volunteering with the Cincinnati Art Museum and working as a United Way location campaign manager for Duke Energy.

Kimberly's most recent recognitions include being named a Reach for the Stars Leader of the Future and a Duke Energy Emerging Leader. Kimberly also received the Kenton County Award of Distinction and was commissioned as an Honorable Kentucky Colonel.

Shannon Heroux
513.784.5217
sheroux@humana.com

Shannon Heroux is a Sales Executive with Humana, a position she has held since 2004. Shannon has been with Humana since 1999 and has spent the last 17 years of her career in the health insurance industry. She had achieved President's Club status for the past two years by achieving sales goals. She has received the Casualty Claims Law Associate (CCLA) and Legal Principles Claims Specialist (LPCS) designation from the American Educational Institute and is a licensed agent. She enjoys spending time with her husband Matt and their children, as well as gardening, swimming, reading and Bengals football.

Ashley Hess
513.455.7600
wah@gdm.com

Ashley is a member of the law firm Greenebaum Doll & McDonald PLLC where he advises entrepreneurs and businesses on formation and growth issues. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia and the Washington & Lee University School of Law. He moved to Cincinnati five years ago for his job with Greenebaum. He is one of the founding members of The Bacchanalian Society, Inc. and is very involved with the group's fundraising and friend-raising activities. Ashley is newly married: he and his wife Alison live in Mt. Lookout. In his spare time, he enjoys exercising and reading - something other than law.

Peter Horton 513.583.4736
peter.horton@mvg.com

Peter Todd Horton is a Director of Business Development for Miller-Valentine Group. He is responsible for initiating and managing both real estate development and design-build services within the Greater Cincinnati community. Pete is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati, where he received a Bachelors of Architecture. After living in Chicago for five years, Pete and his wife Mary moved back to Cincinnati in January 2002 and now reside in Anderson Township with their two sons. Pete is a board member of Gamma Xi 21 and recently served as a faculty member for the CoreNet Global Summit in Toronto.

Dominic Iacobucci
513.619.0294
diacobucci@bhdp.com

Native Cincinnati Dominic Iacobucci, Workplace Researcher for BHDP Architecture, graduated from DAAP at the University of Cincinnati as an Honors Scholar, with a B.S. and Masters in Architecture. While at UC, Dominic held fifteen positions in eleven organizations including president of RallyCats, an OAK National Leadership Honor Society, co-founded "Bearcat Live!" and received the Presidential Leadership Medal of Excellence, the University's highest honor. Currently he sits on the UC Alumni Association Board of Governors as the Young Alumni Committee Chair and is involved in the community through the United Italian Society, Shriners and Masons. Dominic enjoys traveling, soccer and SCUBA.

Doni Jessen
513.793.5656
jesseng@nationwide.com

Doni Jessen is Vice President of Muniz & Associates LLC, a Nationwide Insurance and Financial Services Agency. Prior to Muniz & Associates, Mrs. Jessen oversaw and led product teams in marketing and brand management and development initiatives for business units totaling over $150 million and global procurement responsibility for Fortune 500 industries like telecommunications and consumer-packing products. She holds a Bachelor of Economics from the University of Dayton and an MBA from Antioch University. She is a founding executive board member of the National Society of Hispanic MBAs Cincinnati Chapter and the Marketing & Communications director of the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. She was awarded the 2004 USA Peruvian Consulate Culture Award, The Business Courier's 2006 Forty under 40 and the 2006 Latina Leadership Award.

Shanon Kammerer
513.983.8641
kammerer.s@pg.com

Shanon Kammerer is an Associate Marketing Manager with Tremor at The Procter & Gamble Company. She develops online and offline word-of-mouth marketing campaigns, and is presently leading a project with Downtown Cincinnati Inc. to promote and bring visitors to our city center. A Chicago native, Shanon found her way to Cincinnati via Miami University, where she was a VP of her business fraternity, studied abroad in London and earned her B.S. in Business Administration (Marketing). Shanon is actively involved in Cincy recreational sports and is a Chicago Bears and Cubs fan. She also enjoys traveling, hiking, painting and photography.

Kathryn Keller
513.458.6616
kkeller@healthfoundation.org

Kathryn Keller is the program officer for School-Aged Children's Healthcare at the Health Foundation of Greater Cincinnati. Kate received her B.A. in Political Science from Eastern Michigan University and her Masters in Public Administration from the University of Cincinnati. She is a nationally recognized expert in school-based health centers, and serves as the Secretary of the National Assembly on the School-Based Health Care Board of Directors. Kate and her husband Craig reside in Cincinnati with her two children.

Ryan Kramer
513.366.3613
rkramer30@aol.com

Ryan J. Kramer, Managing Director for Northwestern Mutual, RPS Financial Group. Ryan received his B.S. in Marketing from Illinois State University in 1998. He started his financial services company in 1997 as a senior in college. Ryan has won several company awards, including "New Representative of the Year" and "Top 10" in the company for his work in running the internship program. He has received several industry awards including Million Dollar Round Table. He has been involved with Easter Seals, Rotary and FCA. He resides with his wife, Jennifer, in Mt. Lookout. Ryan enjoys sports, reading and traveling.

Phillip Lanham 513.556.5605
phillip.lanham@uc.edu

Phillip P. Lanham, Associate Director of Development at the University of Cincinnati College of Business. He earned his BBA & MBA in Marketing and International Business at the University of Cincinnati, where he was senior class president. He volunteers his time at on-campus initiatives and serves as chair of the Cincinnati Horticulture Society's Spring Fling Committee. He and his wife, Tami, enjoy traveling, golf and spending time with their two sons, Grant and Chase.

Kirsten Lecky
513.605.7800
kl@bestuponrequest.com

Kirsten Lecky is the vice-president of business development at Best Upon Request. She is a member of Vistage International Key Group, the American Society for Healthcare Human Resources Administration and the Society for Human Resource Management. Kirsten is a 2005 YWCA Rising Star and one of the 2006 Top 10 Tri-State Women in Sales by Women's Business Cincinnati. She is a Cum Laude graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Stout and lives in Fort Thomas, KY. Kirsten and her husband, Mike, have two sons, Benjamin and Graham. Her favorite pastime is being with family and friends.

Kaukeb Malik
513.561.7298
kaukebmalik@gmail.com

Kaukeb Malik, middle school social studies and language arts teacher. She received her B.A. in history and political science from the Ohio State University, and M.A. in middle childhood education at University of Cincinnati. In recognition of her volunteer efforts, she received the 2004 West Chester Chamber of Alliance's Young Woman of Excellence Award. Active volunteer with Bridges for a Just Community (formerly NCCJ), she is also a local Muslim youth group advisor. In addition to substituting and coaching middle school basketball at Cincinnati Country Day School, she enjoys traveling, reading, and spending time with her family and friends.

Mark McAndrew
513.977.8380
mark.mcandrew@dinslaw.com

Mark A. McAndrew is an attorney in Dinsmore & Shohl's Cincinnati office where he practices in the areas of general business and corporate law, mergers and acquisitions, healthcare and government contracts. Mark received his J.D. with honors from Tulane Law School in 1999 and his undergraduate degree from the University of Notre Dame in 1993. Prior to moving to Cincinnati in March 2006, Mark practiced law for approximately six years in Washington, D.C. Mark and his wife Christa have two young children, Griffin and Catherine.

Monica McPeek
513.651.6182
mmcpeek@fbtlaw.com

Monica McPeek is a senior associate at the law firm Frost Brown Todd. She practices in the firm's litigation department. A 1992 graduate of Mariemont High School, she received a B.S. in 1996 from Miami University and her law degree from the University of Cincinnati College of Law in 1999. Monica serves as a Corporate Guild member of the Cincinnati Chapter of Dress for Success and is a member of the steering committee of Frost Brown Todd's Women's Initiative. She lives in Mt. Lookout with her husband, Brad and their dog, Nuxie.

Dave Ostreicher
859.380.8159
djostrei@umich.edu

Dave Ostreicher, Purchasing Strategy Specialist at Toyota Motor Engineering & Manufacturing North America, comes to Cincinnati from the University of Michigan where he received his BSE/MSE in Industrial & Operations Engineering and BA in Japanese. While on campus, Dave was active in AIESEC (an international exchange organization), Residence Education and the Michigan Pops Orchestra. As an alumnus, he facilitates at leadership retreats and serves on several University boards. Now at home in Cincinnati, Dave is a youth group advisor, Give Back Cincinnati volunteer and frequent patron of the arts. Dave enjoys racquetball, urban-hiking, world travels and time with friends.

Karl Preissner
513.627.6072
preissner.km@pg.com

Karl Preissner is a Senior Product Developer for the Procter & Gamble Laundry Products group. He studied Chemical Engineering and Economics at Northwestern University where he also ran a local movie theater operation. Karl is Community Service Director for the Greater Cincinnati Northern Kentucky Eagle Scouts Association. He is also Implementation Director for Project LilyPad, a non-profit wireless initiative. Outside of work, Karl is an avid marathoner/triathlete with a passion for reading and music.

Nick Proffitt
513.482.4432
nick.proffitt@messer.com

Nick Proffitt is the Business Development Manager for Messer Construction's Cincinnati Region. Nick and his wife, Lisa, recently re-located to the area from Lexington where he served in a similar capacity for Messer's office there. Growing up an Army brat, moving is nothing new to him as he has lived in eight different states and two different countries. He earned his BS in Civil Engineering from the University of Kentucky in 2000. While at UK, he worked for Messer as a Co-op student and has been with them ever since. Nick enjoys playing soccer and golf in his free time.

Michael Prus
513.321.7774
mprus@prusconstruction.com

Michael Prus is vice-president of Prus Construction. He received both his B.S. in Construction Management and his MBA from the University of Cincinnati. He has worked on projects such as Paul Brown Stadium, Serpentine Wall decorative walkway and Fountain Square improvements. Michael is married to Kim McLellan, a United Way board member. They have a daughter named Emma. He is currently chapter chairman of the Ohio Contractor's Association. He has volunteered with Habitat for Humanity, One Way Farm and University of Cincinnati students.

Jamie Ramsey 513.639.3928
jramsey@kmklaw.com

Jamie Ramsey is a partner with the law firm of Keating Muething & Klekamp in Cincinnati. He received his B.S. in Sociology, cum laude, and his Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from Northern Kentucky University. Jamie's law practice is focused on commercial litigation and insurance policy coverage disputes. He was named an Ohio Rising Star by Law & Politics magazine in 2005 and 2006. A former president of the NKU Alumni Association, he currently serves a board member of the Children's Law Center, Inc. Jamie and his wife, Heather, reside in Northern Kentucky with their newborn son, Landon.

Daniel Reitz 513.629.2797
dreitz@graydon.com

Daniel E. Reitz, is an attorney at Graydon Head & Ritchey LLP, where his practice focuses on commercial real estate and corporate law. He received his B.A. from Miami University, cum laude, and his J.D. from the University of Cincinnati, where he was a Student Articles Editor of the Law Review and name to the Order of the Coif. Name a "Rising Star" by Ohio Super Lawyers Magazine in 2005. Dan was a recipient of the Cincinnati Youth Collaborative's Dream Maker Award in 2005 for his work as a mentor to at-risk youth. He enjoys spending time with his wife Amy and daughter Isabelle, as well as traveling, sailing and brewing beer.

Clara Rice 513.345.2242
clara.rice@cincyplay.com

Clara Rice, MFA, CAPM-Associate Executive Director, Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park. Graduating Phi Beta Kappa from Grinnell College in 1999, with BAs in Economics and Theatre, Clara went on to Yale School of Drama and received a Master of Fine Arts in Theatre Management in 2002. She received her Certified Associate in Project Management designation in June 2006. Clara is the Secretary for Mayor Mallory's Young Professional Kitchen Cabinet, the Co-Chair of CincyUpdate, the founder of Cincinnatians United to Save Darfur and a member of LEGACY and Enjoy the Arts/START. She is a proud resident of downtown.

Kendra Roland
513.762.1023
kendra.roland@kroger.com

Kendra Roland is a Process Engineer for The Kroger Co., one of the nation's largest grocery retailers. She has spent the past seven years applying project management best practices, delivering quality projects and maximizing return on investment. Currently, Kendra is managing Kroger's Project Management Office (PMO) implementation, project governance procedures and mentoring Project Managers to ensure IS project execution quality/efficiency and maximize probability of project success. She received her Bachelors in Business Administration from Kent State University, her MBA from the University of Phoenix and her Project Management Professional Certification.

Julie S. Smith
513.768.5570
jsmith@cincinnatiopera.org

Julie Smith, Development Associate for Individual Giving at the Cincinnati Opera, hit the Cincinnati scene in 2001 after stints in Cleveland, New York and Guangzhou, China. She's a graduate of Kenyon College with degrees in Psychology and Mandarin Chinese. For fun, Julie lends her effervescent personality and common sense know-how to Cincinnati Opera Center Stage, Katrina Collaboration and the Corryville Suzuki Project. She's also the puppet master behind the decadent Carnivale d'Expose, an annual benefit for The Carnegie in Covington. Julie's interests are vast and include making up jingles and not watching TV.

Dacia M. Snider
513.421.4440 x115
dacia@downtowncincinnati.com

Dacia M. Snider is the Director of Special Projects for Downtown Cincinnati Inc. (DCI). Dacia's background in economic development drives her passion for downtown Cincinnati. A 2006 Forty Under 40 recipient, she is a board member of the Downtown Residents Council, leadership team member of Project Lily Pad, a member of YPWired (organizers of the YP Sounding Sessions) and Regionalism Taskforce member of Legacy. A native of northeastern Ohio, Dacia holds degrees in both finance and public administration and is a graduate of Miami University. Dacia and her husband, Luke, live in Westwood where they are raising their son, Ian.

Jennifer Spieser

513.357.2621

jennifer.spieser@cincinnati-oh.gov

Jennifer Spieser is a Development Associate for the Cincinnati Parks Foundation. She received her B.A. in Communication from the University of Cincinnati. Jennifer volunteers her time as a Next Chapter Book Club Facilitator for the MRDD and as a "Wish Maker" for the Make-A-Wish Foundation. She also serves as an Advisory Board member for Give Back Cincinnati. Jennifer and her husband Eric reside on the West side of town with their little beagle, Nina.

Jennifer has the support of a wonderful family and great friends. She thoroughly enjoys writing, cooking and hiking.

Tara Stopfel

513.556.6537

tara.stopfel@uc.edu

Tara Stopfel, Assistant Dean for Academic Advising, University of Cincinnati. She received an M.Ed. in Counseling and Student Services (Higher Education Administration) and B.A. in General Studies (Biology, Psychology & Sociology) from the University of North Texas. Professional expertise includes design and leadership of student service and academic support programs. She established the UC Center for Exploratory Studies and supervises the McMicken College of Arts & Sciences advising program. She also holds an appointment as Lay Leader for Adult Education & Spiritual Growth ministries at Hyde Park Community UWC. She enjoys travel, dining and entertaining at her home in Madisonville.

Kristin Suess

513.621.4700

ksuess@etastart.com

Kristin Suess, arts enthusiast, became the Manager of Programs and Services for Enjoy the Arts following a 5-year stint with Cincinnati Opera. After receiving her BA in Performance from Mesa State College, Colorado, she moved with Jeff (husband) and Morpheus (boxer) to pursue an MBA/MA in Arts Administration at UC-CCM. Her graduate paper included a rare violin study that continues to generate interest from around the world. Kristin is active in her Church, and serves on the Rohs Street Café Board and the Mayor's Young Professionals Kitchen Cabinet. In the fall, she goes temporarily insane coordinating the 20/20 Arts Festival.

Brian S. Todd 513.241.3111
btodd@cshco.com

Brian S. Todd is a Manager in the Cincinnati office of Clark, Schaefer, Hackett & Co. with responsibilities for all aspects of audits, reviews and compilations as well as careful preparation of Federal Form 990s for not-for-profit organizations. His expertise includes counseling not-for-profits with process improvements. He graduated from the University of Cincinnati with bachelor's degrees in Business Administration (Accounting and Finance). Professional affiliations include the American Institute, Ohio Society and Kentucky Society of CPAs. Brian is also a member of the Board of Trustees and Finance Committee of the Alzheimer's Association of Greater Cincinnati.

Jason Ulmenstine
513.271.9026 x103
julmenstine@cpsconsult.com

Jason D. Ulmenstine, Director of Business Development with Construction Process Solutions, Ltd. He attended Xavier University. He is a board member of the Society of Marketing Professional Services and participates in supporting local Susan G. Komen Foundation events. He participates in wide range of associations including Allied Construction Industries, Design Build Institute of America, National Association of Women in Construction and the American Bar Association. He takes pleasure in activities with his wife, Christine, as well as spending time auto racing, fishing, and traveling.

Maggie Ungers
513.864.3283
Maggie_ungers@lpk.com

Maggie Anne Ungers, graphic designer at Libby Perszyk Kathman (LPK), an international package design and brand identity agency. She received her B.A. in Fine Arts from Miami University. Some of her past accomplishments include working as a congressional intern for the 109th congress in Washington D.C.; recipient of the Arthur B. Damon Art Scholarship; fundraising chair (2005) for the Young Professionals group of the Baby's Milk Fund (BMF) Pediatric Care; collaborative designer on the Outdoor Museum for Artworks of Cincinnati; and participant on numerous fundraising events and volunteer efforts for organizations like United Way and Give Back Cincinnati. In addition, she has traveled all over Europe for study abroad programs for pleasure and for design work. She enjoys running, skiing and cooking in her free time.

Darin Vilano
513.629.1175
darin.vilano@wslife.com

Darin Vilano is part of Western & Southern Financial Group's Leadership Development Program - a highly selective and intense three-year rotational program designed to place top MBA graduates on a fast track toward leadership positions in senior management. He stays actively involved in the community by serving in a number of cultural, civic and volunteer organizations.

Darin served his country honorably in the United States Navy/Reserves. He has earned a bachelor's degree in finance from the University of Pittsburgh and an MBA from the University of Notre Dame. Darin currently resides in the Mt Adams neighborhood of Cincinnati.

James M. Zimmerman 513.357.9448
zimmerman@taftlaw.com

James M. Zimmerman, attorney, Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP. He received his undergraduate degree and his law degree from Vanderbilt University. He serves on the Advisory Board of Give Back Cincinnati and on the alumni councils for Cincinnati Country Day School and Vanderbilt University Law School. In 2005 and 2006, he was selected by Cincinnati Magazine as a Super Lawyer Rising Star. He and his wife Mary have four children, a daughter, born 2004, and triplets, born 2006.

Jennifer Zimmerman 859.431.2075
jc_zimmerman@hotmail.com

Jennifer Crouse Zimmerman, evaluator, advocate and researcher, currently splits her time between Children, Inc. in Northern Kentucky and the Health Foundation of Greater Cincinnati. She has a Master's degree in Social Work from Washington University in St. Louis. She is involved in multiple community-based, collaborative projects focused on serving children and families in the Greater Cincinnati region. She has also presented her work at many national and international conferences. Ms. Zimmerman previously worked in St. Louis in the nonprofit community. She and her husband Geoff enjoy traveling and outdoor activities.